

We are excited about the new look we launched this summer for all of our school communications. It is the result of extensive market research conducted over the past two years. Our new logos emphasize the dual academic programs we offer, while paying tribute to the unbreakable bond between Villa Duchesne students and Oak Hill students.

Villa Duchesne, in the traditional burgundy, is now represented by the Society of Sacred Heart logo inset with an image of the 1929 Main Building. Oak Hill, in dark blue, is now represented by the Society of the Sacred Heart logo inset with an image of an acorn and oak leaves. The Society of the Sacred Heart logo serves as our framework for both school logos, just as the Open Heart of Jesus serves as the framework for Sacred Heart education.

We invite you to explore our new communications in the coming months from our alumni magazine to our website. You will find that while the “wrapping paper” has changed, the “gift” of Sacred Heart education has not. We continue to educate students to a personal and active faith in God; a deep respect for intellectual values; a social awareness which impels to action; the building of community as a Christian value; and personal growth in an atmosphere of wise freedom.
