Sister Nordmann is the Head of School at Villa Duchesne and Oak Hill School. Currently, she is also a board member at Maryville University and the Academy of the Sacred Heart (the Rosary) in New Orleans, Louisiana and moderator of the Children of Mary Sodality at Villa Duchesne. Formerly, she was Head of School at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Grand Coteau, Louisiana and Doane Stuart School in Albany, New York. Prior to that, she taught at several Sacred Heart schools: Academy of the Sacred Heart at Grand Coteau, Louisiana, Duchesne Academy in Omaha, Nebraska, Doane Stuart School in Albany, New York, and Villa Duchesne. In addition her to teaching experiences, Sister has served as chaplain and as Patient & Family Advocate at Saint Luke's Hospital and Director of Development at Lydia's House, both in Saint Louis. She has held the positions of Saint Louis/Saint Charles Area Director for the Religious of the Sacred Heart and Co-coordinator of the Associates of the Society of the Sacred Heart. A native of Saint Louis and a City House alumna, Sister Nordmann holds a bachelor's degree from Maryville University and a master's degree in educational administration from Washington University in Saint Louis.

The Sacred Heart Spirituality Series is sponsored by the Mums of Alums at Villa Duchesne and Oak Hill School for the benefit of the entire Sacred Heart family. This series is the Mums' effort to participate in the stewardship of the vision of Saint Madeleine Sophie - a second sowing of the Sacred Heart mission by parents who gave to their children the gift of Sacred Heart education and who continue to cherish Life at the Sacred Heart. All are most cordially invited to attend.
